

COMMON STUDY PROGRAMME IN CRITICAL CRIMINOLOGY

Democracy, Criminology and the Rule of Law

27-29, NOVEMBER 2024
PORTO, PORTUGAL

Faculty of Law, University of Porto

📍 Rua dos Bragas, 223 P-4050-123 Porto

Program

Wednesday, November 27

09:00 - 09:30 Registration of participants

09:30 - 09:45 Welcome (Noble Hall)

Director of FDUP
 Director of CIJ
 Director of School of Criminology
 Representative of the Scientific Committee

09:45 - 11:30 Plenary I (Salão Nobre) - Chair: Rita Faria

Aurora Rodrigues

1. "Lived experiences in a totalitarian state."

Amadeu Recasens I Brunet

2. "Construction of democracy and security. What can Criminology do?"

Damián Zaitch

Utrecht University

3. 'If there is no Justice, there is no Escrache: Naming & Shaming in the aftermath of Argentinian Dictatorship (1976-1983)'

11:30 - 12:00 COFFEE BREAK

12:00 - 13:30 Plenary II (Salão Nobre) - Chair: Olga Petintseva

Bettina Paul

Universität Hamburg

1. "More than human criminology? Reflections on perspectives to avert new right appropriations of wildlife conservation"

Sofia Vidali

Panteion University

2. 'The political economy of torture as state crimes in different political regimes: The Greek case.'

Thomas Labik Amanquandor

University of Oslo

3. "Challenges in contextualising anti-corruption strategy in local realities: the South Africa case."

13:30 - 14:30 LUNCH BREAK14:30 - 16:15 Student presentations I (Room 128) - Chair: Dina Siegel

- Despoina Tzani* Democritus University of Thrace
1. "Koriopolis Scandal and the Sports - Politics - Gambling Nexus: Lessons to be learned from the biggest match-fixing case in Greece."
- Emilia Roder* Ghent University
2. 'Corporate reactions to the CSDDD.'
- Mária Calmeiro* University of Porto
3. 'The development of deviant corporate behaviour: a life cycle analysis in the chemical industry.'
- Dimitra Kalampaliki* Democritus University of Thrace
4. 'Green Criminology and Treadmill of Crime: The case of ecological crimes by maritime shipping in Greece.'
- Yago Rosado Egea* Utrecht University
5. 'Beneath the Surface: Uncovering the Global Harms of the Spanish Distant-Water Fleet in the Atlantic.'

16:15 - 16:30 COFFEE BREAK16:30 - 18:00 Student presentations II (Room 128) - Chair: Elisabeth Brein

- Joyce Albrecht* Vrije Universiteit Brussel
1. "Capturing the narratives of children of incarcerated parents: Theoretical and methodological challenges and opportunities."
- Akvilė Tamulytė* Vilnius University
2. 'Media Constructions of Juvenile Delinquency: An Overview of Lithuanian Online News Outlets in 2017-2022.'
- Nasreen Ahmed* Erasmus University
3. 'Policing of drugs in East Oslo versus West Oslo: a qualitative study on the lived experiences of young people with policing disparities.'
- Leon Bell* University of Oslo
4. "It's not a very child or youth friendly process": a study of the legitimacy of Norwegian Youth Participation in National Decision Making."

18:00 - 18:10 BREAK

18:10 - 19:40 Student presentations III (Room 128) - Chair: Margarita Gasparinatou

Natalia Fovaki

Erasmus University

1. "How can we counter extremism in politics and what is there to be learned from the case of Golden Dawn in Greece?"

Rúben Pinto & Luísa Costa

University of Porto

Barcelos

2. "The Killnet group: from hacktivism to cyber-terrorism."

Vytautas Kaktinas & Eglė

Vilnius University

Stankevičiūtė

3. 'Mythologised through media: uncovering the pop-cultural characteristics of online hacking forums.'

Pauline Güntsch

Universität Hamburg

4. "The exotic image of East Germany - xenophobic and disappointed".

21:00 - STAFF DINNER: Restaurante Torreão22:00 – CASUAL GET-TOGETHER: Café Candelabro

Thursday, November 28

09:30 - 11:00 Plenary III (Room 128) - Chair: Kristal Beyens

Vassilis Gerasopoulos Utrecht University

1. 'We are here!' The Importance of 'Sex Worker Proof' Imagery against Harmful Ignorance.

Maryja Šupa Vilnius University

2. 'Technology and future trajectories of punitivity: lessons learned from selective persecution of online offenders.'

Dave Brotherton John Jay College/CUNY

3. "Policing the Border: The Ice Machine, the Deportation Pipeline and Social Bulimia in New York City."

11:00 - 11:30 COFFEE BREAK

11:30 - 13:00 Student presentations IV (Room 128) - Chair: Dan Stageman

Jorge Prada Erasmus University

1. 'Borderlands Beyond control: Mountains, Jungles and criminal dynamics in Colombia's borders with Ecuador and Panama.'

Marloes Streppel Ghent University

2. 'Human Rights Violations, the EU and Frontex.'

Nathália Castro University of Porto

3. "Because I was the one to blame, right?" Secondary victimisation of migrant women.

Shane Thiara University of Kent

4. 'Silent struggles and voices of advocacy: navigating domestic violence and abuse amongst South Asian victims.'

13:00 - 14:30 LUNCH BREAK

14:30 - 16:00 Plenary IV (Room 128) - Chair: Jenni Ward

*Fátima Rodrigues, Ana
Guerreiro, Pedro Sousa*

University of Porto

1. 'InJusticewar: criminal justice in colonial times.'

Amr Marzouk

Erasmus University

2. "You can teach an old dictator a new trick: how oppressive regimes learn to control cyberspace."

Mathias Desmet

Ghent University

3. 'Destabilizing democratic societies through the targeting of cultural heritage.'

16:00 - 16:30 COFFEE BREAK16:30 - 18:00 Student presentations V (Room 128) - Chair: Lou Kontos

Ugnė Rakauskaitė

Vilnius University

1. 'The Use Of The Institute Of Diminished Capacity In The Lithuanian Court System: Sentence Analysis And Specialist Insight.'

Dayanne Andrade

University of Porto

2. "Is it "just" a matter of protection? The place of LGBT people in prisons."

*Nikoletta Despotidou &
Athanasia (Nasia) Tsoulo*

Panteion University

3. 'Forms of concentration camps and rule of law. From Dictatorship to Democracy.'

*Gerard Memlikaj & Natalia
Chouvarda*

Democritus University of Thrace

4. 'State crimes and state of denial during the seven-year dictatorship in Greece (1967-1974).'

18:00 - 18:10 BREAK18:10 - 19:10 STUDENTS' MEETING (Maria Morcona) // STAFF MEETING (Council Room)*22:00 - FAREWELL PARTY: Embaixada Porto

Friday, November 29

09:30 - 11:00 Student presentations VI (Room 128) - Chair: Jayne Mooney

Anna Schott Erasmus University

1. "Territorial Stigma in Transition: Destigmatization or Re-Stigmatization in a Redeveloping Neighborhood."

Nishita Yerraguntla Ghent University

2. "How safe is safe enough?" Exploring youth's perceptions of safety in Rotterdam's metro system. Comparing and contrasting to a general perspective.

Clara Johanna Laute Universität Hamburg

3. "Security in museums - case study on the interplay between security and art."

Ignė Kalinauskaitė & Loreta Vilnius University

Matačiūtė

4. 'Contemporary means of convict control and digital marginalisation: the case of Lithuanian prisons and Probation.'

11:00 - 11:30 COFFEE BREAK

11:30 - 12:30 Plenary V (Room 128) - Chair: Nikolaos Koulouris

Emma Cooke University of Kent

1. 'The Profession, 'Authoritarian' Attacks, and The Pandemic: Legal Aid Lawyers in the Post-COVID Era of Access to Justice.'

René van Swaeningen Erasmus University

2. "A History of the Common Study Programme on Critical Criminology: 1984-2024."

12:30 - 12:45 BREAK

12:45 - 13:30 Closing Session

Distribution of certificates and information about the next Common Session

Group picture

Instructions for presentations: students

Each presentation should last 15m at the most. Please be mindful. As we have a very busy program, it is essential that you keep track of time during your presentation. If you have a PPT you can send it in advance to Ruben Pinto rpinto@direito.up.pt or bring it in a USB stick. Please use the break before your presentation to save the document on the computer desktop. If you use a Mac, please make sure to bring the necessary connectors. No pointers will be available.

Instructions for presentations: staff

Each presentation should last 25m at the most. Please be mindful of time. As we have a very busy program, it is essential that you keep track of time during your presentation. If you have a PPT you can send it in advance to Ruben Pinto rpinto@direito.up.pt or bring it in a USB stick. Please use the break before your presentation to save the document on the computer desktop. If you use a Mac, please make sure to bring the necessary connectors. No pointers will be available.

Instructions for chairs

Please be mindful of time. As we have a very busy program, it is essential that you keep track of time of presentations and discussion.

During the discussion, please remember the common sessions are mostly oriented towards student participation, so please encourage comments, questions and replies / debates from students.

As a chair you are also expected to moderate discussions, help translate or clarify questions and replies if needed and curate language used.

Event sponsors

